Organiser's comments - Rob McKenna

Many thanks for all turning up and supporting this event.

It was quite exposed, cold and windy in the parking area and at the start, but when the sun shone in the woods it was quite pleasant.

Dave planned some tough courses that seemed to be enjoyed by most competitors judging by comments at the download. It appears to be getting increasingly harder to stage a full range of courses to the correct standard on the area. We did think that the previous event would have been the last use of Black Banks and Dave has done well to come up with one more competition to keep you on your toes.

Thanks also to the small band of dedicated club volunteers who helped make the event run smoothly.

Acknowledgements

NN are grateful for permission to use this area for our orienteering events from:

Mr P Fawcett of Bollihope Estate for Knitsley Fell,

Mr S Place of Scottish Woodlands Ltd for Black Banks Plantation, and

Mr A Moralee for his 100 acre field and the parking area.

Mr Moralee kindly donated his £50 fee to Weardale Community Transport, a local Wear Valley charity.
