Officials:

Co-ordinator : John Willis

Organiser : Rob McKenna

Planner : Dave Caudwell

Controller : John Crosby (NATO)

Co-ordinator's comments - John Willis

A lot of hard work was put in by club helpers over the weekend – thanks to all of them for their time and effort. The same thanks go to the competitors, who, I hoped enjoyed these two new areas, which offered a variety of terrain, though probably not enough technical difficulty for some.

I do not thank the competitors who were not courteous to other road users on the narrow road to Edges Green (day 1). Nor to the couple who, when asked why there were so many cars, gave the reply "It's a public road, if you don't like it phone 999". As the person they gave this answer to is part of the family that owns the land that we were using, it could have resulted in our losing the area for orienteering.

I also do not thank those who climbed walls (one was a boy from a red mini-bus), or those who did not use the correct crossing points, but damaged fences instead. The agreement of 12 landowners had to be gained for use of the two areas, it only needed one to refuse and it was lost. Much time is spent gaining permission before mapping and organising events. The thoughtlessness of a few could render all that effort and money spent wasted.

Organiser's comments - Rob McKenna

Apologies for the loss of the car park field – after the toilet truck got stuck in the entrance to the field when delivering the loos and the farmer had to pull him out, he was understandably not too keen to have a few hundred cars park there. The parking along the road was not ideal, but there was no other alternative. It was decided to post the results at the finish to allow most people to view them as they finished. The prize giving was abandoned as it was felt that due to the weather, people would not want to hang around.

Most people seemed to enjoy their runs although the later starters suffered from the wet weather making the slopes even more slippery. Some of the times seem to be a bit fast, but this was due to the difference in the terrain – the older classes were not taken into the steeper areas.

Planner's comments - Dave Caudwell

Most competitors seemed to find Plankey Mill a challenging area and the gold times are close to those recommended by BOF for all classes except for those associated with courses 16 and 17, where competitors times are much faster than those recommended. There were two main reasons for this. Firstly the application of the course lengths in the guidelines issued to planners meant that it was difficult to get people into and out of the main wooded area along the river Allen. So those competitors were almost entirely in the very fast pastureland. Secondly, I thought the terrain in the wooded area was physically unsuitable for M70 plus – look at the M65 times, who were in the woodland. The controller has allowed the badge times on these courses to stand without adjustment.

October Odyssey Trophies

Due to the bad weather it was not possible to have a prize giving on the day - sorry. Trophies are to be awarded at a future event - please contact Margaret Crosby to arrange collection.

(tel : 0191 2685449)

Trophies to be awarded to the lowest cumulative times of the 'L' and 'A' classes.

The course which was voided will have the trophies awarded to the class winners of the second day.

Acknowledgements

Northumbrian Environmental Management and Tynedale District Council for help towards mapping costs.

Thanks to the farmers John Davison, John Dodd, Jimmy Storey, Mr. Renwick and Mr Coulson. Thanks also to the National Trust – Dennis Flemming (Head warden at Allen Banks).
