Organisers comments – Ken Frankish

Did some of you get lost?...or stop to take in the history?

The Bishops of Durham have had residence here since Norman times. Did you fall into the mediaeval fish ponds which produced carp for the Bishop's table? Did you see the deer shelter which was built in 1760 to fatten up 300 deer in winter to make them worth hunting? Did you catch cold in the ice house? Did you have a fight with the Wellingtonia which prize fighters are said to have used as a punch bag because of its spongy bark? Did you imagine the 1600 strong English army camping here in 1346 before marching off to win the battle of Neville's Cross in October 1346?

Did you enjoy orienteering in a first class county or are you just annoyed by getting your results late?

Many apologies for these late results. After a magnificent effort by a few helpers to sort out all the results on the same evening I haven't been able to look at them again until the Bank holiday. I've been well and truly involved in the debate about the future of Local Government in Durham and Cleveland. Does this even have implications for orienteering? Will CLOK have to change its name? Or is the club named after the hills? It was good to see almost 100 people participate in this small local event. I hope everybody enjoyed it particularly those who were trying orienteering for the first time. Thanks to Bob Johnson, who, as usual, produced interesting courses in this small area, to Elizabeth Hale as controller and to the family, friends and club members who helped on the day.
