Organiser / planner's comments - Gary Russell

Many thanks for all turning up. It is a pity that a few of the control sites were vandalised. Temple Park can be quite nice to run round, but it is always better if there is something to find. The mix of permanent course controls seemed to help, but even a few of these have been attacked.

I was expecting slightly faster times, but hunting for lost controls seems to have taken its toll.

Thanks to Dave Caudwell for an up to date and accurate map, which helped during the planning stages and I hope that you appreciated the difference when out running.

If anybody requires their part 1 or 2 maps they will be available at the next event at QEII park.
