Officials:

Organiser - Bob Cooper
Planner - Richard Bryson
Controller - Alan Morgan

Organiser's comments - Bob Cooper

Many thanks to all those who willingly gave their assistance in various capacities - the finish team coped remarkably well under pressure (wind pressure demolishing the finish tent, that is!) and, despite the brave efforts of those attempting to re-erect the tent, had to spend a considerable time exposed to the elements.
The fees charged by the Local Education Authority for use of the car parking facilities necessitated the parking charge, which I hope participants found acceptable.
It was pleasing to see so many juniors, families and groups enjoying the courses.

Planner's comments - Richard Bryson

Many thanks to Alan Morgan for the guidance he gave on the finer points of planning and for his active involvement on the day of the event. I hope the various courses, as planned, brought out the full potential of Washingwell Wood. The control sites were remarkably free from vandalism / interference and I trust participants had an enjoyable morning.

Controller's comments - Alan Morgan

It's nice to see competitors enjoying themselves and so, after having checked all the control sites, I like to get into the competition area to watch and listen to people's reactions. The prize for this event must go to the lady with two toddlers who, having found a 'path junction' on the yellow course, was obviously so delighted that she was re-assuring her children with, 'We've cracked it! We've cracked it!' - I hope they found the rest of the course to their liking.
A not so pleasant feature was where a dog (unleashed and not belonging to an orienteer) was seen to be jumping up and down excitedly at a two year old with his mother - again on the yellow course - as it happened, the dog was not malicious.
Thanks to Richard Bryson (planner), Bob Cooper (organiser) and other club members without whose dedicated work before, during and after the event this fixture would never have taken place.
