Officials

Organiser - Debbie Warren

Planner - Julian Warren

Controller - Rob McKenna (NN)

Controller's comments - Rob McKenna

The Orange course was a real challenge and probably a little too long. Competitors on the others courses did quite well given the very warm conditions on the day and Julian's courses were just about right. The Odds+Evens score course is a bit of a novelty but quite difficult to complete - testing both mental and physical skills.

A few competitors had failed to punch the finish correctly and care should be taken here, however, I have been lenient with the results.

Thanks to Debbie for standing in as organiser at short notice - Boris who was meant to organise was recovering from a hip operation, but hopes to be up and about in the near future.
