Both of the Score events seemed to prove more of a challenge than I had first thought and well done to the few competitors that managed to get them all. It is interesting to see how they achieved it.

A more comprehensive set of score results are available at:

www.northern-navigators.org.uk/results/220913.xls

I have reviewed the time taken from last control to 'finish' and adjusted the penalties where applicable (marked *). This affects the following results - Martin Adamson, David Floyd, Bob Richardson.

If you feel that your result also needs particular attention then please let me know.

I must apologise for the error with the finish not being marked on the Score maps and hope that this did not detract from your enjoyment of the area.
